TEN-YEAR INDEX

The tenth volume (1949) of College and Research Libraries contained a special supplement, Rare Books in the University Library (July), and a Tenth Anniversary Issue (October). Earlier volumes have provided significant supplementary issues. Continuing its policy of affording the greatest possible service to subscribers of its journal, the Association of College and Reference Libraries, through its Board of Directors, has allotted funds for the publication of this ten-year cumulative index. Prepared by the voluntary work of David C. Libbey, of the State College of Washington Library, Pullman, this index represents another labor of love by an A.C.R.L. member. The Association, subscribers to the journal, and the editors owe Mr. Libbey a vote of thanks.

The index is a complete revision of the indices included in the individual volumes. Attention may be called to the following special features: (1) a separate section, "Review Articles," contains an alphabetical listing under the names of the authors of the titles reviewed, (2) reviews entered under the names of the reviewers, (3) a section on "Appointments," which contains the names of librarians appointed to major positions, and (4) groupings of special departments, such as "News from the Field," "Periodicals—New Titles," "Necrology," and "College and University Libraries—Statistics." A limited number of abbreviations are used.—Maurice F. Tauber.
